

The Postmodern Condition

1. The Field: Knowledge in Computerized Societies

Our working hypothesis is that the status of knowledge is altered as societies enter what is known as the postindustrial age and cultures enter what is known as the postmodern age.¹ This transition has been under way since at least the end of the 1950s, which for Europe marks the completion of reconstruction. The pace is faster or slower depending on the country, and within countries it varies according to the sector of activity: the general situation is one of temporal disjunction which makes sketching an overview difficult.² A portion of the description would necessarily be conjectural. At any rate, we know that it is unwise to put too much faith in futurology.³

Rather than painting a picture that would inevitably remain incomplete, I will take as my point of departure a single feature, one that immediately defines our object of study. Scientific knowledge is a kind of discourse. And it is fair to say that for the last forty years the "leading" sciences and technologies have had to do with language: phonology and theories of linguistics,⁴ problems of communication and cybernetics,⁵ modern theories of algebra and informatics,⁶ computers and their languages,⁷ problems of translation and the search for areas of compatibility among computer languages,⁸ problems of information storage and data banks,⁹ telematics and the

Diversity, Divergence, Dialogue Katharina Toeppe, Hui Yan, Samuel Kai Wah Chu, 2021-03-19 This two volume set LNCS 12645 12646 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Diversity Divergence Dialogue iConference 2021 held in Beijing China in March 2021 The 32 full papers and the 59 short papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 225 submissions They cover topics such as AI and machine learning data science human computer interaction social media digital humanities education and information literacy information behavior information governance and ethics archives and records research methods and institutional management Social and Community Development John Eversley, 2018-11-02 Social and Community Development is an essential introduction to the subject for students potential practitioners and activists interested in community action and emancipatory social change It reflects on the underlying principles of development what development is why it is promoted and the implications for practice indicating potential strategies and goals Libraries Empowering Society through Digital Literacy Heather Todd, Prudence W. Dalrymple, Luisa Marquardt, Ning Zou, 2025-11-03 High speed connectivity massive growth in social media the ubiquity of mobile devices and the emergence of artificial intelligence have led to information confusion chaos and complexity The ability for everyone to create find evaluate use and apply information effectively is critical to successful personal societal and global outcomes Libraries and librarians must adapt their services and instructional approaches to engage with digital natives immigrants and refugees to ensure all gain the competencies required by digital citizens What constitutes digital literacy and how can we do it better This book explores concepts frameworks and practices in digital literacy to foster adoption of initiatives to extend digital literacy to all Networks of Knowledge Production in Sudan Sondra Hale, Gada Kadoda, 2016-09-14 This is the first book of its kind on Sudan and arguably one of the first in North Africa We are part of an emerging more cosmopolitan approach that calls for a reassessment of ideas about not only the concept of identities but also about migration and technology especially social media Our essayists engage in redefinitions the broadening of our key variables the linking and intersecting of concepts and the investigations of methods and ethics and opt for an approach that is at once culturally specific to Sudan one of the most fluid social landscapes in the world and transnational Our essays address the narrowness of studies of migration and note the almost total neglect in the broader Sudan literature of the rise of technology mobile telephony and social media in particular Furthermore our essayists address the near neglect in the Sudan literature of certain categories of people such as youth or certain diverse spaces such as neighborhoods or gold mines We have also been attempting to move away from the nearly stereotypic descriptions of Sudan to deal with topics that align Sudan with transnational issues and themes knowledge production among them This multidisciplinary collection of essays is the first comprehensive work to grapple explicitly with the question of knowledge production in such a diverse social landscape We discuss the impact of current trends in information technology and contemporary forms of identity and mobility on knowledge production These issues are pertinent for different sectors such as academia government or business and as we demonstrate reveal a myriad of possibilities for studying diverse population groups like youth women diaspora or specific political contexts such as conflict or oppression Aesthetics Equals Politics Mark Foster Gage, 2019-04-16 How aesthetics understood as a more encompassing framework for human activity might become the primary discourse for political and social engagement These essays make the case for a reignited understanding of aesthetics one that casts aesthetics not as illusory subjective or superficial but as a more encompassing framework for human activity Such an aesthetics the contributors suggest could become the primary discourse for political and social engagement Departing from the critical stance of twentieth century artists and theorists who embraced a counter aesthetic framework for political engagement this book documents how a broader understanding of aesthetics can offer insights into our relationships not only with objects spaces environments and ecologies but also with each other and the political structures in which we are all enmeshed The contributors philosophers media theorists artists curators writers and architects including such notable figures as Jacques Rancière Graham Harman and Elaine Scarry build a compelling framework for a new aesthetic discourse The book opens with a conversation in which Rancière tells the volume's editor Mark Foster Gage that the aesthetic is about the experience of a common world The essays following discuss such topics as the perception of reality abstraction in ethics epistemology and aesthetics as the first philosophy Afrofuturism Xenofeminism philosophical realism the productive force of alienation and the unbearable lightness of current creative discourse Contributors Mark Foster Gage Jacques Rancière Elaine Scarry Graham Harman Timothy Morton Ferda Kolatan Adam Fure Michael Young Nettrice R Gaskins Roger Rothman Diann Bauer Matt Shaw Albena Yaneva Brett Mommersteeg Lydia Kallipoliti Ariane Lourie Harrison Rhett Russo Peggy Deamer Caroline Picard Matt Shaw Managing Editor Creativity in the Early Years Simon Taylor, 2024-04-24 This book offers an accessible and comprehensive new introduction to the subject and practise of creativity in early years education Taylor takes a uniquely rights based and inclusive approach to creativity providing students with a holistic internationally minded overview of creativity and its place both inside and outside the classroom Sections focus on Defining creativity and its benefits Different modes of creativity Creativity in a policy and social context Creative pedagogy in practice Creative leadership Each chapter offers questions for critical reflection illustrative contemporary case studies and ample suggestions for further reading Omnia Sunt Communia Doctor Massimo De Angelis, 2017-04-15 In this weaving of radical political economy Omnia Sunt Communia sets out the steps to postcapitalism By conceptualising the commons not just as common goods but as a set of social systems Massimo De Angelis shows their pervasive presence in everyday life mapping out a strategy for total social transformation From the micro to the macro De Angelis unveils the commons as fields of power relations shared space objects subjects that explode the limits of daily life under capitalism He exposes attempts to co-opt the commons through the use of code words such as participation and governance and reveals the potential for radical transformation rooted in the reproduction of our communities of life of work and of society as a whole Journal of Gender Studies ,2012 Los virajes del quipu Alberto Valdivia Baselli,2018 Este libro es un trabajo sobre la epistemología de la resistencia y la filosofía de la liberación latinoamericana aplicadas a las diferentes formas de producción y reproducción de conocimiento cultural y artístico dentro de la lógica utópica en el real andino Desde la noción de filosofía alterna libertaria y heterocéntrica se analiza la formación de heterotopías utópicas alternas y especulares y cómo estas proyectan ideologías y construcciones epistemológicas de resistencia periférica Estas proyecciones son estudiadas a partir de casos concretos en los que se construyen sujetos y objetos heterotópicos andinos Nueva coreografía y buen gobierno de Guaman Poma de Ayala el teatro quechua colonial anónimo y el de Juan Espinosa Medrano y El zorro de arriba y el zorro de abajo de José María Arguedas The Postmodern Condition Jean François Lyotard,1997 The Postmodern Condition : a Report on Knowledge ,1997 The Postmodern Condition Jean-Francois Lyotard,1991 The Origins of Postmodernity Perry Anderson,1998 Trenchant and panoramic The Origins of Postmodernity traces the genesis consolidation and consequences of the notion of the postmodern Beginning its exhilarating intellectual tour in the Hispanic world of the 1930s it follows the changes in the meanings and usage of the concept through to the late 1970s when its adoption by Jean Francois Lyotard and Jorgen Habermas first gave the idea of postmodernism wider currency Central attention then falls on Fredric Jameson whose work today represents the most outstanding general theory of the postmodern Reconstructing the intellectual and political background of Jameson's interpretation of the present The Origins of Postmodernity looks at its aftereffects in the debates of the 1990s Anderson enriches his much cited analysis of modernism by placing postmodernism in the force field of a declassé bourgeoisie the growth of mediated technology and the historic global defeat of the left symbolised by the end of the Cold War Rigorously pursuing his interpretation of postmodernism as the cultural logic of a multinational capitalism complacent beyond precedent Anderson ends with a set of historical reflections on the fading of modernism shifts in the system of the arts the rise of the spectacular debates on the end of art and on the fate of politics in the postmodern world After the Future Gary Shapiro,1990-01-01 This book brings together diverse aspects of postmodernism by philosophers literary critics historians of architecture and sociologists It addresses the nature of postmodernism in painting architecture and the performing arts and explores the social and political implications of postmodern theories of culture The book raises the question of whether postmodernism is to be seen as one more epoch or period within a succession of eras or as a challenge to the modernist practice of periodization itself The nature of the subject and of subjectivity is explored in order to resituate and contextualize the autonomous subject of the modern literary traditions Postmodern approaches to philosophy both analytical and continental including the work of Deleuze Derrida Foucault Rorty and Cavell are scrutinized and compared with a view to the question of foundationalism and with respect to philosophy's historical reflection on its own exclusionary practices After the Future discusses the ramifications of technology and programs for the renewal of community in a radically pluralistic society It also discusses the question of language and the diverse ways of distinguishing the articulate from the inarticulate The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism Stuart Sim,2012-05-23 This fully revised third edition of The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism provides the ideal introduction to postmodernist thought Featuring contributions from a cast of international scholars the Companion contains 19 detailed essays on major themes and topics along with an A Z of key terms and concepts As well as revised essays on philosophy politics literature and more the first section now contains brand new essays on critical theory business gender and the performing arts The concepts section too has been enhanced with new topics ranging from hypermedia to global warming Students interested in any aspect of postmodernism will continue to find this an indispensable resource

Defining Literary Postmodernism for the Twenty-First Century Matthias Stephan,2019-04-25 This book presents a definition of literary postmodernism using detective and science fictions as a frame Through an exploration of both prior theoretical approaches and indicators through characteristics of postmodernist fiction this book identifies a structural framework to both understand and apply the lessons of postmodernism for the next generation Within a growing consensus that the postmodern era has passed this book examines the different conceptions of postmodernism and posits a meaningful definition one which can provide the foundation for future literary expression This theory is then applied to genre fiction particularly detective fiction and science fiction demonstrating that postmodernism is found in the structure rather than questions posed about literary expression Finally Matthias Stephan considers post postmodern movements and how they can be expressed given this definition of literary postmodernism moving forward to the twenty first century
