

The Symbol of Postmodernism

(Frank Gehry)

What?

Contemporary architects are using increasingly radical forms for domestic buildings that were once regarded as ordinary. Architects are embracing forms that challenge architectural norms, including asymmetrical and tilted walls or facades, as well as irregularly shaped windows and doors.

Model 1 - The 1994 Vancouver Children's Centre

Model 1 is a symbol of the increasing radical forms a postmodernist architect can achieve in the 1990s.

It also represents Gehry's own theories on the way to

to what architectural forms represent in the world

regarding the use of space and the structure of the building itself, which is a key element of Gehry's design process and the way it is used
