Fate of a Royal Meagan Brandy,Amo Jones,2025-07-29 You will go to Rathe University live among the giftless and those of light magic You Knight Deveraux will learn to coexist I've never heard more wasted words in my life Then again the gifted counsel never did have much to say that wasn't The only members amongst them who speak a thing worth listening to are my parents the King and Queen of the Stygian's the people of Dark Magic Unfortunately for me and my brothers they've chosen to play nice instead of sinking their talons into anyone who dares demand a thing from their heirs In this instance at least Every gifted is forced to leave our realm behind after graduation to spend the next four years in a world that isn't ours while pretending it's enough for those with something deeper clawing beneath their skin. It isn't. Not by a long shot and while it's as boring as I thought it would be, we find ways to entertain ourselves. A little Fae Dust, the power of persuasion and it's a party worthy of a royal or four. That was fun the first year but it's my second now and the minute I got back to campus I knew it would be worse than before. I felt it that pull buried beneath my skin, the whisper of a warning deep in my mind I could hear but couldn't reach. It starts with a human party and ends with a nightmare. A five foot white haired one. With eyes like ice and a body begging to be bitten she's a problem. A giftless one. That's right she's human. Worthless. And if the shadow circling my soul is telling me what I think it is she belongs to it. My new obsession is my fated mate. But there is no way the fates would give me a Lord of Rathe, a heir to the throne of dark magic, a giftless girl. I'll prove they got it wrong. That she's not mine. If I'm lucky I'll destroy her in the process.

Audrey's Mr. Darcy Paula Freda, 2015-03-07 Audrey Lambert is a self sufficient woman newly appointed as Manager of a Financial Consulting Department. Tall, sophisticated and well educated she hides well the simple dreamer within who finds immense joy seated in a window alcove reading the journals of her great grandmother's adventures and romance as she traveled with her husband in search of rare artifacts, often mysterious and mystical. To everyone Audrey appears unattainable, especially to one of the financial consultants under her supervision who considers himself cursed because his name is William Darcy from a long line of Darcys that had nothing whatsoever to do with Jane Austen's Mr Darcy. What's worse he resembles to a tee the popular actor who portrayed the character in the movie based on Austen's novel. Inevitably most women who date him insist on comparing him with the character to their eventual disillusionment. He doesn't have an English accent, born and bred in a small hamlet on Long Island, New York, a nice town with trees and malls, buses and trains and taxicabs. He isn't as tall or as confident or as proud of bearing and not one hundredth of a percent as rich as the fictional Fitzwilliam Darcy One disappointed woman actually told him he had no right facially to resemble Austen's Darcy She suggested plastic surgery If only he could find a girl who dislikes Austen's Mr Darcy That's as improbable as finding a needle in a haystack To his edification he learns that Audrey dislikes the Darcy character preferring looks akin to Bronte's Edward Fairfax Rochester Attracted to Audrey Wil is prepared to go to all lengths even to growing his hair longer dying it black wearing elevator shoes to add more height to his 5'11" and dressing in apparel a mix between respectable 18th century and cool contemporary He is mortified when he reads the controlled laughter in Audrey's eyes But surprised soon after at her request that he accompany her on an archaeological trip Her trip has to do with company business and a multi-millionaire's account Audrey tells Wil that she considers him one of the best and most conscientious workers in the department He is honored and sees a glimmer of hope for his chance to win her affections Excerpt Wil turned on his back and opened his eyes He groaned with relief glad the dream was over and he was awake He wasn't overly fond of this dream As a child the occasional recurring dream terrified him As a teen it had made him wonder what was going on in his subconscious As an adult it made him speculate Perhaps he should visit a psychologist The setting wasn't always the same but it evoked the same feelings not fear any longer yet strange He didn't actually see himself but he felt the tentacles and he knew they were his arms and legs That was the weird part of the dream The part that he didn't mind at all was the woman who stood on the dais Her flowing garment was sheer and spun from silk and she wore a gold ankh pendant across her chest and a golden diadem with an ostrich feather at the front on her straight black hair Behind her was a royal throne garbed in red silk Wil had long since deduced she was an Egyptian Queen from ancient times She did not appear afraid of his appearance almost as if she did not see the tentacles as she smiled at him admiration and warmth in her onyx gaze She was as beautiful in form as were her thoughts and her soul inexplicably clear to him And he as the creature loved her The dream puzzling as ever Wil ran a nervous hand through his darkened hair What was his subconscious trying to tell him He took a deep breath and climbed out of bed A steaming cup of coffee sweetened with cream and sugar followed by a nutritious breakfast would help him shake off the dream's effects Audrey is the great granddaughter of Elizabeth Grace whose story is told in the author's novellas and novel The Adventures of Grace Quinlan and Lord William Hayden A Coupe of Thorns and Rosé Pop Press, 2024-08-08 Delicious drinks with a slow burn With 60 toe curling tipples and scrumptious spritzes inspired by your favourite romantic stories realms and tropes A Coupe of Thorns and Rosé is the perfect companion to add some serious spice to your reading nook or bookclub Whether you fancy an Atlas Spritz to toast to bitter rivals a High Lady Between The Sheets to serve your Shadow Daddy or an Empyrean Espresso Martini to bond over this book has a drink for every romantasy fan even Tam stans try the Green-eyed Fairy With beautiful illustrations throughout simple methods and a reading checklist this is an absolute must for any TBR
