

APPENDIX I

Full Feasibility Analysis

Every full feasibility study is organized into generally well-defined sections that correspond to the questions that you will need to answer. Along with each part of the organizational chart, is available to MS Word and PDF format under various "Workbooks of Sample Business Feasibility Studies".

Executive Summary

- (A) Name of the proposed business
- (B) Name of the founder (or founders)
- (C) One-paragraph summary of the business

Part I: Product/Service Placement

Market Assessment in This Part

- (A) Production cost description
- (B) Production cost details

Assessment Topics

Concept Validation Test

- Write a concise statement for your product/service idea. Share the concept statement with 10-15 people. Select people who will give you informed and useful feedback.
- Ask for their views about the concept statement and ask the people who read the statement to circle your three things that they think your product/service idea (1) provide three suggestions for making it better, (2) tell you whether they think the product or service idea is feasible, but not for commercial, and (3) share any additional comments or suggestions.
- Summarize the information you obtain from the concept statement test that follows the three paragraphs:
  - Strength of the product or service idea – (ask people who validated your product or service concept and they "think" about the idea)
  - Suggestions for strengthening the idea – suggestions made by people that strengthen ideas or improving the idea
  - Overall feasibility of the product or service concept – report the number of people who think the idea is feasible, the number of people who think it isn't feasible, and any additional comments that were made.
  - Other comments and suggestions
