look different are often cast as the villain or monsters. It's only when they shed their unconventional skin that they are seen as good or less frightening. There are very few stories where the character that looks different is the hero of the story. I've been the hero of my story, telling it on my own terms, proud about my facial difference and disability, not wanting a cure for my rare, severe, and sometimes confronting skin condition, and knowing that I am beautiful even though I don't have beauty privilege. This honest, outspoken, and thought-provoking memoir by award-winning writer and appearance activist Carly Findlay will challenge all your assumptions and beliefs about what it is like to have a visibly different appearance. Carly lives with a rare skin condition, Ichthyosis, and what she faces every day and what she has to live with will have you cheering for her and her courage and irrepressible spirit. This is both a moving memoir and a proud manifesto on disability and appearance diversity issues. Believe the hype by turns frank, funny, and fearsome. Findlay's extraordinary memoir is an early contender for 2019's best Australian non-fiction, a powerful and moving invitation to examine the structures of privilege and dehumanisation that we so desperately need to address in this country.
