

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE

Don't panic about those scary high costs of attendance you see posted on college websites. Lots of students actually pay through grants, scholarships and other "free" funds by the time all is said and done. To make sure your family gets its fair share of financial aid, follow these very easy steps.

1. ESTABLISH A PLAN

☐ HAVE FAMILY MEETING

There's only so far you can go to help determine the amount of money you'll need to finance your child's education. Sit down with all of your family and get everyone's thoughts on what you can contribute to the cost. If you have a large family, your other costs, such as child care, may be significant. Talk about how you'll manage to pay for college.

☐ FIND A FINANCIAL "SAFETY NET"

Look for ways to help your child's college when you're unable to pay. Is a relative, friend or aunt or uncle willing to help? Are you able to get private college insurance that'll pay for part of expenses and the rest of the cost covered by insurance?

☐ SORT OUT A BUDGETING PLAN

Apply to as many colleges that completely describe all financial resources. If you get through and the numbers don't work out,

2. MAKE A COMMITMENT

☐ COMMIT TO THE PLAN

Even if you don't expect to pay for all of the expenses, you must be willing to contribute the full plan, with expenses increasing after you've paid that college or colleges.

☐ KNOW WHAT TO ASK FOR

When you're applying for aid, make sure you're asking for the right amount of financial aid. Don't over-estimate your needs. Ask for what you need and no more. Be realistic about how much you can pay. Remember that amounts of money left at the end of the year probably won't be returned to you.

☐ TALK TO THE COLLEGE

The Financial Aid Office is responsible for determining how much financial aid you'll receive and how much you'll have to pay. Ask for a breakdown of the aid you'll receive.

3. MAKE A COMMITMENT

☐ MAKE YOUR CHOICE

A college costs $2,000 a year, college goes up more than $100 a year and the average family has a $10,000 a year income. If you can't pay for college, you'll have to go to work. You might not want to go to work if you're a student, but you'll have to go to work if you're a parent.

☐ LOOK BEYOND THE AID

When you're looking for a college, don't just look at the aid you'll get. If you have a lot of money, you'll need to look at other things. Look at the college's location, the quality of the college, the quality of the college's faculty, the quality of the college's facilities, the quality of the college's staff, the quality of the college's food, the quality of the college's housing, the quality of the college's transportation, the quality of the college's recreation, the quality of the college's health care, the quality of the college's security, the quality of the college's environment, the quality of the college's community, the quality of the college's culture, the quality of the college's history, the quality of the college's future.

☐ KNOW WHAT TO ASK FOR

When you're applying for aid, make sure you're asking for the right amount of financial aid. Don't over-estimate your needs. Ask for what you need and no more. Be realistic about how much you can pay. Remember that amounts of money left at the end of the year probably won't be returned to you.
