Brandwashed Martin Lindstrom, 2011-09-28 A shocking insider's look at how global giants conspire to obscure the truth and manipulate our minds. Marketing visionary Martin Lindstrom has been on the front lines of the branding wars for over twenty years. Here he turns the spotlight on his own industry drawing on all he has witnessed behind closed doors exposing for the first time the full extent of the psychological tricks and traps that companies devise to win our hard earned dollars. Picking up from where Vance Packard's bestselling classic The Hidden Persuaders left off more than half a century ago Lindstrom reveals New findings that reveal how advertisers and marketers intentionally target children at an alarmingly young age starting when they are still in the womb. Shocking results of an fMRI study which uncovered what heterosexual men really think about when they see sexually provocative advertising hint it isn't their girlfriends. How marketers and retailers stoke the flames of public panic and capitalize on paranoia over global contagions, extreme weather events and food contamination scares. The first ever neuroscientific evidence proving how addicted we all are to our iPhones and our Blackberry's and the shocking reality of cell phone addiction it can be harder to shake than addictions to drugs and alcohol. How companies of all stripes are secretly mining our digital footprints to uncover some of the most intimate details of our private lives then using that information to target us with ads and offers perfectly tailored to our psychological profiles. How certain companies like the maker of one popular lip balm purposely adjust their formulas in order to make their products chemically addictive. What a 3 month long guerrilla marketing experiment conducted specifically for this book tells us about the most powerful hidden persuader of them all. And much much more. This searing expose introduces a new class of tricks, techniques and seductions the Hidden Persuaders of the 21st century and shows why they are more insidious and pervasive than ever.

Social Media For Real Salih Seckin Sevinc, 2014-02-03 Has Conventional Media Been Outdated As technology develops marketing areas and strategies change too We evolved to sales professionals with worldwide reach from barkers trying to sell their products on pushcarts or did we not Everyday we come across with unique works which create an effect that millions worth TV commercials can not All the companies started to face this grim fact If you are not in social media you don't exist The ones who say we make the best of it buy our product have already been discredited The whole world is changing its shell And of course there are some who stand up to this We are living in an age that marketing is trying to wriggle itself out of the monopoly of conventional media On the other hand traditional values which has shaped us regain importance Notions such as creativeness entrepreneurship courage are more valuable Social media creates the opportunity of taking the fire from gods and offering it to mankind It's alright but how do we do this without burning our hands Marketing communications is a delicate matter Especially marketing in social media is more delicate Brands which don't resist shell changing and have right self expression skills reach people more easily A more conscious selective and demanding customer profile takes the place of crowds that listen to whatever you say gapingly and obey For the very reason while brands using social media right honest and consciously survive others going on with heirloom sales techniques won't be able to go beyond being a funny video on Youtube

Escape Rope CC Reid, 2026-01-28 On his first journey to Central Asia in 1994 straightaway the author realized how effectively he has been brainwashed not only as a child but even today as an adult His account of the Cold War documents this brainwashing as a child growing up under capitalism and then later in life living among those who grew up under communism Through his lifetime work as a public health epidemiologist in Africa and Asia the author presents how people really live what they are really like While searching for the world's last remaining Smallpox you will meet three inspiring individuals in the remote savannah bush of southwestern Ethiopia and later you will experience nomad hospitality in the barren thornbush desert of Somalia His journey in Tanzania challenges the West on just who is developing whom In Sierra Leone you will experience everyday hardships which a leisure culture could never imagine In the Caucasus region you will observe how those far removed view a US presidential election In Palestine you will witness the marginalized abused by the marginalized Apaga la luz reveals genuine compassion in rural Mexico Finally as you revisit his homeland you will experience the author's most severe lifetime culture shock

The Neuro-Consumer Anne-Sophie Bayle-Tourtoulou, Michel Badoc, 2020-04-24 Neuroscientific research shows that the great majority of purchase decisions are irrational and driven by subconscious mechanisms in our brains This is hugely disruptive to the rational logical arguments of traditional communication and marketing practices and we are just starting to understand how organizations must adapt their strategies This book explains the subconscious behavior of the neuro consumer and shows how major international companies are using these findings to cast light on their own consumers behavior Written in plain English for business and management readers with no scientific background it focuses on how to adapt marketing and communication to the subconscious and irrational behaviors of consumers the direct influence of the primary senses sight hearing smell taste touch on purchasing decisions and the perception of communications by customers brains implications for innovation packaging price retail environments and advertising the use of nudges and artifices to increase marketing and communication efficiency by making them neuro compatible with the brain s subconscious expectations the influence of social media and communities on consumers decisions when collective conscience is gradually replacing individual conscience and recommendation becomes more important than communication and the ethical limits and considerations that organizations must heed when following these principles Authored by two globally recognized leaders in business and neuroscience this book is an essential companion to marketers and brand strategists interested in neuroscience and vital reading for any advanced student or researcher in this area
