Christian Academic Writing Benjamin L. This book distills their years of experience to offer inspiration and encouragement for writing and publishing academic works. It is ideal for students writing papers in Christian academic settings and for young academics who want to further develop their writing skills. Christian Academic Writing is full of helpful and proven advice that will motivate readers to reach their goals. It focuses on best practices and emphasizes the finished product. Each short, readable chapter includes questions inviting readers to take their writing to the next level. Writers' & Artists' Yearbook 2026 Bloomsbury Publishing, 2025-07-17 The 119th edition of the indispensable bestselling guide to everything you need to know about publishing. A vital resource for all writers looking to get published, including authors, poets, and screenwriters.

English for Emails Rebecca Chapman, 2007 Negotiating the Personal in Creative Writing Carl Vandermeulen, 2011-08-19 This book describes an alternative way to teach Creative Writing: one that replaces the silent writer taking criticism and advice from the teacher-led workshop with an active writer who reflects upon and publically questions the work in progress in order to solicit response from a writers group as well as from the teacher. Both accompany the writer first as readers and fellow writers only later as critics. Because writers ask, they listen and dialogues with responders become an inner dialogue that guides later writing and revision. But when teachers accompany writers teaching CW becomes even more a negotiation of the personal because this teacher who is listener and mentor is also a model for some students of the writer and even the person they would like to become and still the Authority who gives the grades.
