Protests Beyond the Plaza Kateryna Malaia, Nathan M. Hutson, 2026-02-27 The chapters in this volume investigate some of the most important urban upheavals in recent history through different political social and cultural contexts Through this cross section of case studies from Ukraine Belarus Myanmar Lebanon Spain United States South Korea and Iran authors envision the future of the successful urban protest as a whole society movement in which all aspects of a city s morphology are effectively leveraged The volume illustrates the ways in which these protests consciously and subconsciously drew lessons from each other s experiences and integrated physical and virtual tools Urban environments shape facilitate and or complicate protests and the degree to which protesters recognize and internalize these features is often key to their efficacy Moreover emerging protest strategies proliferate and change to fit the context in which they occur Using interviews mapping architectural and planning scale documentation of urban morphologies this volume traces the development of important protests and the evolution of protest strategy in balancing the physical and the virtual It will be of interest to architects urban sociologists urban planners historians political scientists journalists and anyone else interested in how the city shapes resistance Performance and Human-Animal Entanglements Anna Wieczorkiewicz, Sylwia Siedlecka, 2026-02-12 The volume explores how nonhuman animal lives are entangled with human interests conflicts and desires highlighting the role of performance in these interactions Drawing on diverse case studies it unfolds across four thematic sections Training Animals Show Machines Artistic Experiments and Political Conflicts The book benefits readers by sharpening ethical and critical awareness of how animals are entangled in human culture from circuses and museums to art games and social media Its key features are a strongly comparative interdisciplinary approach and a focus on less studied regions and practices It delivers these benefits through carefully structured thematic sections and rich case studies that reveal hidden mechanisms of representation exploitation and interspecies exchange The book can be read as a coherent whole tracing different dimensions of human animal entanglements but each chapter also functions as a self contained case study The book is aimed at scholars students and activists in cultural and animal studies performance and media studies and related fields as well as anyone interested in ethics and human animal relations
