Ramananda Chatterjee,1922 Includes section Reviews and notices of books The Rise of Science in Islam and the West John W. Livingston,2017-12-14 This is a study of science in Muslim society from its rise in the 8th century to the efforts of 19th century Muslim thinkers and reformers to regain the lost ethos that had given birth to the rich scientific heritage of earlier Muslim civilization The volume is organized in four parts the rise of science in Muslim society in its historical setting of political and intellectual expansion the Muslim creative achievement and original discoveries proponents and opponents of science in a religiously oriented society and finally the complex factors that account for the end of the 500 year Muslim renaissance The book brings together and treats in depth using primary and secondary sources in Arabic Turkish and European languages subjects that are lightly and uncritically brushed over in non specialized literature such as the question of what can be considered to be purely original scientific advancement in Muslim civilization over and above what was inherited from the Greco Syriac and Indian traditions what was the place of science in a religious society and the question of the curious demise of the Muslim scientific renaissance after centuries of creativity The book also interprets the history of the rise achievement and decline of scientific study in light of the religious temper and of the political and socio economic vicissitudes across Islamdom for over a millennium and integrates the Muslim legacy with the history of Latin European accomplishments It sets the stage for the next momentous transmission of science from the West back to the Arabic speaking world of Islam from the last half of the 19th century to the early 21st century the subject of a second volume A Divine Wink: When Love and Religion Become Rivals Michael Wright,2020-03-18 Adeelah El Sayed meets Martin Webster a Christian a dangerous liaison for a Muslim woman that leads to a private war The first battle comes from within Adeelah knows her relationship with a non Muslim man is unacceptable in her Islamic world But she loses this battle She cannot overcome the forbidden love that invades her soul and she hopelessly surrenders Together Martin and Adeelah face more attacks from mosque church and their two families all because they dare to love each other Then two more unexpected attacks A kidnapping attempt to force Adeelah into a marriage with a Muslim man and a white supremacist attack In the Christian New Testament God winked at the ignorance of Greek philosophers on Mars Hill who worshipped an unknown god Martin and Adeelah find that God still winks today a Divine wink at the ignorance that separates two God fearing people who take their faith in God seriously an ignorance that conspires to keep them apart And the times of this ignorance God winked at The Islamic Review ,1930 The Genealogy of Terror Matthew L. N. Wilkinson,2018-10-03 In the first two decades of the twenty first century the events of 9 11 7 7 the War on Terror and the Caliphate and atrocities of the so called Islamic State have dominated Western consciousness and wreaked havoc in parts of the Muslim majority world In their wake a spate of books has been written explaining the phenomenon of Islamist radicalisation and Jihadism Nevertheless for normal citizens as well as scholars of religion and legal professionals the crucial question remains unanswered how is mainstream Islam different from both Islamism and the Islamist Extremism that is used to justify terrorist violence In this highly original book which draws upon the author's experience as an expert witness in Islamic theology in 27 counter terrorism trials the author uses the idea of the Worldview as well as traditional Islamic theology to answer this question The book explains not only what Mainstream Islam Ideological Islamism and Islamist Extremism are in their broad philosophical characteristics and theological particulars but also explains comprehensively how and why they are both superficially related and yet essentially and fundamentally different In so doing the book also illuminates the cast of characters and the development of their ideas that constitute Mainstream Islam Ideological Islamism and the Non Violent and Violent Islamist Extremists who constitute the Genealogy of Terror
