  - c) Missing her home and doesn't have her family
  - d) Etc...

4. How is Ezekial compared to Lyddie's father? How does this comparison change Lyddie's view of Ezekial?
- Ezekial leaves his family to try to make his life better and the life of his family. Both have been away from their families for a long time. I think this makes Lyddie more compassionate towards Ezekial and fugitives in general. She even gives him money, which is much needed to pay off the debts.

curriculum goals of the National Council for the Social Studies and the book explains how it can be used to satisfy any state or local curriculum standards The book also identifies and illustrates resources that can be used with this method from data bases to popular music and explains how teachers can gradually integrate it into their courses In the first part of the book the method of history as choice is explained using the question of whether the American Revolution was a mistake as a case in point The second part of the book explores thirteen other questions about significant issues and events in American history as additional examples of how one might teach history as choice
