Practising Phonics

at Home and Out and About

If your child is learning phonics at school, you might want to support them at home but feel unsure of what to do.

The right help can boost your child's confidence in the right way. It's important to know that at the same time that you're helping your child, you're also giving them the opportunity to learn on their own. It's important to be encouraging and to praise their achievements.

If you can't see your child learning, that's not a problem. You can still help your child learn by reading to them. It's important to be encouraging and to praise their achievements.
