Paradigms Lost William Sonn,2006-02-14 Four times in western history in the 1400s the early 1800s the 1880s and again in the mid 20th century we learned to duplicate and disseminate the printed word more cheaply And each time strange events followed For with each of these changes in the gritty production of glamorous content expensive and secret bodies of knowledge abruptly became cheap and easy to spread Once rare and sometimes disorienting impressions rained down on once sheltered folks New and otherwise inexpert hands mixed them into whole new breeds of information myth logic and viewpoints There were fantastic scientific advances mass migrations bold social experiments financial upheavals and much bloodshed In the harrowing decades that followed powerful new kinds of governments businesses and groups came to elbow aside old ones In all of these periods there were great creaking shifts in politics wealth religions and even the way we learn think and see And in the last decade the costs of producing and distributing printed knowledge have fallen a fifth time far and fast and almost to free Paradigms Lost traces the history of the accidents inventions forces eccentrics and geniuses who accelerated information in the past examines what happened each time they succeeded and provides some background for what if the past is any guide may be coming Domestic Engineering ,1922 The 18 Immutable Laws of Corporate Reputation Ronald J.
