Handbook Of Landscape Archaeology Beelo:

Handbook of Landscape Archaeology Bruno David, Julian Thomas, 2016-06-03 Over the past three decades landscape has become an umbrella term to describe many different strands of archaeology From the processualist study of settlement patterns to the phenomenologist s experience of the natural world from human impact on past environments to the environment s impact on human thought action and interaction the term has been used In this volume for the first time over 80 archaeologists from three continents attempt a comprehensive definition of the ideas and practices of landscape archaeology covering the theoretical and the practical the research and conservation and encasing the term in a global framework As a basic reference volume for landscape archaeology this volume will be the benchmark for decades to come All royalties on this Handbook are donated to the World Archaeological Congress Body Parts and Bodies Whole Katharina Rebay-Salisbury, Marie Louise Stig Sørensen, Jessica Hughes, 2010 This volume grew out of an interdisciplinary discussion held in the context of the Leverhulme funded project Changing Beliefs in the Human Body through which the image of the body in pieces soon emerged as a potent site of attitudes about the body and associated practices in many periods Archaeologists routinely encounter parts of human and animal bodies in their excavations Such fragmentary evidence has often been created through accidental damage and the passage of time nevertheless it can also signify a deliberate and meaningful act of fragmentation As a fragment a part may acquire a distinct meaning through its enchainment to the whole or alternatively it may be used in a more straightforward manner to represent the whole or even act as stand in for other variables This collection of papers puts bodily fragmentation into a long term historical perspective The temporal spread of the papers collected here indicates both the consistent importance and the varied perception of body parts in the archaeological record of Europe and the Near East By bringing case studies together from a range of locations and time periods each chapter brings a different insight to the role of body parts and body wholes and explores the status of the body in different cultural contexts Many of the papers deal directly with the physical remains of the dead body but the range of practices and representations covered in this volume confirm the sheer variability of treatments of the body throughout human history Every one of the contributions shows how looking at how the human body is divided into pieces or parts can give us deeper insights into the beliefs of the particular society which produced these practices and representations Irish Late Iron Age Equestrian Equipment in its Insular and Continental Context Rena Maguire, 2021-12-23 This is the first practical archaeological study of Irish Iron Age horsemanship The horse and associated equipment were very much at the heart of the social changes set in motion by contact with the Roman Empire the examination of the snaffles and bits allows us to bring the people of the Late Iron Age in Ireland into focus Lucan's Imperial World Laura Zientek, Mark Thorne, 2020-02-06 These new essays comprise the first collective study of Lucan and his epic poem that focuses specifically on points of contact between his text and the cultural literary and historical environments in which he lived and wrote The Bellum Civile Lucan's poetic narrative of the monumental civil war between Julius Caesar and Pompey Magnus explores the violent foundations of the Roman principate and the Julio-Claudian dynasty. The poem, composed more than a century later during the reign of Nero, thus recalls the past while being very much a product of its time. This volume offers innovative readings that seek to interpret Lucan's epic in terms of the contemporary politics, philosophy, literature, rhetoric, geography, and cultural memory of the author's lifetime. In doing so, these studies illuminate how approaching Lucan and his text in light of their contemporary environments enriches our understanding of author, text, and context individually and in conversation with each other.

Coppice Agroforestry Mark Krawczyk, 2022-07-05. Cut and come again forestry: reviving the ancient practice of resprout silviculture to power local woodland-based economies. Coppice Agroforestry is a richly illustrated comprehensive guide to resprout silviculture, managing trees and shrubs by coppicing, pollarding, shredding, and pleaching for a continuous supply of small-diameter polewood for products from firewood to fine furniture. Contextualizing resprout silviculture historically, ecologically, and economically, Coppice Agroforestry explores the potential of this ancient practice for modern times. Coverage includes the cultural history of coppicing in Europe and North America; tree and shrub anatomy, biology, and woodland ecology; a suite of woodland management systems; dozens of handcrafted wood products on a continuum of value offering a wide range of business opportunities; case studies of diverse coppice-based enterprises; assessing existing forests for coppice potential; designing new resprout silviculture systems; tables highlighting diverse species for various uses; a vision of a modern resprout silviculture renaissance. A decade in the making, encyclopedic in scope and written by the hand of a woodsman, Coppice Agroforestry is a deep dive into this ancient practice, blending it with modern science, systems, thinking, and tools to land it firmly into the 21st century. Whether you have a few trees or an entire forest, Coppice Agroforestry is the must-have practical guide for homesteaders, farmers, foresters, land managers, and educators who ally themselves with the remarkable resilience of woody plants.

Bibliographic Guide to Anthropology and Archaeology, 1988. View of Epping Forest Nicholas Hagger, 2012-05-25. Epping Forest was given to the public in 1878. It has many historical and literary associations involving, for example, Harold II, Henry VIII, Elizabeth I, Shakespeare, Tennyson, Clare, and Churchill. Nicholas Hagger came to Epping Forest during the war. As a boy, he knew Sir William Addison, long recognised as an authority on the Forest, and saw Churchill speak in his village in 1945. He grew up against the background of the Forest and visited it regularly when he was living elsewhere. He returned and became the proprietor of three private schools in the area, founding his own school in 1989. The Forest has come into many of his poems and other works. In Part One of this book, he conveys the history of Epping Forest in the times of the Celts and Romans, Anglo-Saxons, and Normans, Medievals, and Tudors, and enclosures and loppers. In Part Two, he shows how history has shaped the Forest places he grew up with: Loughton, Chigwell, Woodford, Buckhurst Hill, Waltham Abbey, High Beach, Upshire.

Epping the Theydons and Chingford Plain An Appendix contains some of his poems about these places His blending of history recollection and poetic reflection presents a rounded view of the Forest Using a technique of objective narrative he developed in other works and drawing on personal experience to give the flavour of a personal memoir he evokes the spirit of the Forest through its best loved places and wildlife and brings the Forest alive through his historical perspective evocation of Nature and vivid writing Nicholas Hagger s Collected Poems Classical Odes and his two poetic epics Overlord and Armageddon are also published by O Books
