1 From Communist to Venture Capitalist Ben's grandparents were card carrying Communists His dad grew up indoctrinated in the Communist philosophy Ben's family moved to Berkeley California in 1968 His dad then became the editor of the famous New Left magazine Ramparts When Ben was five his family moved to Bonita Avenue a middle class Berkeley neighborhood One day a friend of Ben's older brother Roger pointed to an African American kid down the block who happened to be riding in a red wagon Roger dared Ben to go tell the kid to give him his wagon and if he refused to spit in his face and call him a racial epithet Roger wasn't a racist and did not come from a bad family Ben later found out that he had schizophrenia He had wanted to see a fight Ben was afraid of Roger and his demand put him in a very tough situation He thought Roger would beat him up if he didn't do what he told him to do He was also afraid to ask for the wagon He walked toward the boy and when he got near enough he said Can I ride in your wagon The boy Joel Clark Jr said Sure Ben turned to look at Roger and saw that he was gone Ben went on to play with Joel all day and they have been best friends ever since That experience taught Ben that being scared didn't mean he was gutless He learned that what he did mattered and determined whether he would be a hero or a coward If he had completely followed Roger's order he would have never met his best friend He also learned not to judge things by appearance alone
