Educational Innovation in Economics and Business III

Richard G. Milter, John E. Stinson, Wim H. Gijssels, 2013-03-09 Almost thirty years ago a friend involved in the education profession told me that in his estimation much more was caught by students outside of classrooms than was taught within those hallowed walls This statement has stuck with me through years of personal schooling working as a high school teacher working in management serving as a management consultant and trainer and facilitating learning on university campuses across the US eastern Europe and Asia Learning by doing is certainly something most people have experienced But the fact that there is more opportunity to learn more things today as never before with knowledge doubling every 20 months makes learning by doing more complicated As organizations move to respond to the rapid changes in their environments people within those organizations must face the uncertainty and ambiguity that comes with such conditions The one thing most futurists agree on is that the future will be very different than the present Exponential change has become commonplace Companies used to worry about redefining their goals and specific describing their place in an industry Today in order to survive they must be constantly addressing the issues inherent in redefining their industries

Genius at Scale Linda A. Hill, Emily Tedards, Jason Wild, 2026-03-03 Innovation doesn't just happen You need to lead it Discover the three critical roles leaders must play in driving and scaling innovation Constant tech disruption Unrelenting economic volatility Radically shifting demographics and work norms More than ever we need to innovate amid these daunting global challenges But do we have the leadership it takes to make this innovation happen successfully As preeminent leadership scholar Linda Hill Harvard researcher Emily Tedards and former Microsoft innovation executive Jason Wild show in this powerful book there are indeed exemplary leaders to learn from and the authors present their stories in fascinating detail not only igniting your imagination but providing instructive and inspiring models to follow Hill's award winning book Collective Genius began the crucial task of showing that successful innovation doesn't just happen it needs to be led Genius at Scale breaks new ground showing how moving from generating new ideas to actually scaling them involves cocreation collaborating experimenting and learning with others both inside and beyond the boundaries of the organization This requires three distinct types of leadership Leader as Architect shaping culture and capabilities for cocreation Leader as Bridger building partnerships across teams and organizations Leader as Catalyst activating and cultivating movements across ecosystems The authors vividly profile these three types of leaders with individuals from all kinds of companies from Mastercard Pfizer and Procter Gamble to Cleveland Clinic Abu Dhabi Sampark Foundation and ANA spinoff avatarin who illustrate the mindset skills and digital savvy needed for leading in a world more uncertain and challenging than ever before Genius at Scale provides an essential guide to mastering the art and practice of innovation for any current or aspiring leader
