Wojcik, 2001 Popularization and Knowledge Mediation in the Law. Popularisierung und Wissensvermittlung im Recht Jan Engberg, Karin Luttermann, Silvia Cacchiani, 2018 This volume widens the scope of Legal Linguistics from the traditional focus on performative texts like statutes to the popularization of legal knowledge for different purposes The chapters written in English German or French discuss the theoretical basis and methods and investigate popularization efforts by national institutions law firms and community websites The objects of study cover a variety of modes and media from different national contexts reaching from print folders over online written texts to YouTube videos and movies MULTIMODAL DISCOURSE INFORMATION PROCESSING IN ENGLISH CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION FOR LEGAL PURPOSES YANMEI HUAI, 2021-02-22 English for Law also called Legal English Teaching is a big challenge for EFL ESL teachers worldwide

Multimodal teaching and learning may engage law students with legal content and the English language by using multiple communication modes and mediums. But what are the multi modes and multi mediums specific to the ESP English for Specific Purposes course? How would teachers deal with that complicated multimodal information? How would teachers intrigue students' interest, focus their attention, and guide them to follow, respond, analyze, extend, and comment? And how would teachers build students' critical thinking skills and shape international elites' dispositions? This book would discuss more in depth the above questions. The new analysis framework of MDIP (Multimodal Discourse Information Processing) could decode classroom participants' interactive intentions from their multimodal presentation discourses, could focus LCTA (Legal Critical Thinking Abilities) as the primary training purpose of Legal English Teaching, and could provide Legal English Teaching with discursive cognitive and communicative information strategies. With the help of MDIP strategies, teachers are clearer at how to extract the legal documents' genres, how to create the lecture schemata, how to generate visualized tree discourses, how to build hierarchies among multimodal information, how to allocate teaching, learning, and assessing tasks in classroom instruction, etc. As a result, Legal English Teaching's course design will become much less challenging for EFL/ESL teachers.

Dimensions of Forensic Linguistics John Gibbons, M. Teresa Turell, 2008. This volume functions as a guide to the multidisciplinary nature of Forensic Linguistics, understood in its broadest sense as the interface between language and the law. It seeks to address the links in this relatively young field between theory, method, and data, without neglecting the need for new research questions in the field. Perhaps the most striking feature of this collection is its range, strikingly illustrating the multi-dimensionality of Forensic Linguistics. All of the contributions share a preoccupation with the painstaking linguistic work involved using and interpreting data in a restrained and reasoned way. The Legal English Course Book Vol. I+II
