Mechanical Drawing Oswald Gueth, 1913 The Production Sites of Architecture Sophia Psarra, 2019-01-14 The Production Sites of Architecture examines the intimate link between material sites and meaning It explores questions such as how do spatial configurations produce meaning What are alternative modes of knowledge production How do these change our understanding of architectural knowledge Featuring essays from an international range of scholars the book accepts that everything about the production of architecture has social significance It focuses on two areas firstly relationships of spatial configuration form order and classification secondly the interaction of architecture and these notions with other areas of knowledge such as literature inscriptions interpretations and theories of classification ordering and invention Moving beyond perspectives which divide architecture into either an aesthetic or practical art the authors show how buildings are informed by intersections between site and content space and idea thought and materiality architecture and imagination Presenting illustrated case studies of works by architects and artists including Amale Andraos Dan Wood OMA Koen Deprez and John Soane The Production Sites of Architecture makes a major contribution to our understanding of architectural theory architectural practice cultural reception and historiographic shifts in semiotics during the lifetime of a building More nuanced approaches are examined in this collection of 38 essays and creative works from a diverse group of scholars architects and artists who conceptualize finishing not simply as a final outcome but as an extended action a mood that presumes an end is near all the while working continuously toward but never achieving completion It is here that the concept of finishing is not a state of being but a state of becoming as an active thickening of time when the end is thought to be imminent but not yet attained Finishing more than a final endpoint is a void state that is extended through efforts framing its territory while never quite containing it From the material to the procedural and the conceptual this volume explores the practices of finishing in architecture within three currents surfaces projects and most broadly architectural times It will be of interest to students and instructors of architecture and design architectural historians and other scholars
