Practising Phonics

at Home and Out and About

If your child is learning phonics at school, you might want to support them at home but feel unsure of what to do.

The right level for you depends on the knowledge and the right resources to help them. Don't worry that at the same stage the children are you are doing you different work. Starting up with a book of simple words is a good idea. It's not about how many words you know, it's about how you use them. It's about how you use them to help your child learn.

If you can't see your child learning from a book, try using a book that has pictures and words. You can use the pictures to help your child learn the words. You can also use the pictures to help your child learn the words. You can also use the pictures to help your child learn the words.
