Pumpkin Spice Same Day Delivery Customer Service:

What Customers Crave Nicholas Webb, 2016-10-12 Think you know your customers You better be more assured than just thinking you do because your success depends on it The best companies in the world first research exhaustively what their customers desire and then they deliver it in memorable and deeply human experiences resulting in success previously believed to be unachievable So once again how well do you know your customers In a hyperconnected economy that is radically changing consumer expectations this vital expectation for any successful business is not always easy But in What Customers Crave author and business strategist Nicholas Webb simplifies this critical task into being able to confidently answer two questions What do your customers love What do they hate Jam packed with tools and examples this must have resource helps businesses reinvent how they engage with customers both physical and virtual Learn how to Gain invaluable insights into who your customers are and what they care about Use listening posts and Contact Point Innovation to refine customer types Engineer experiences for each micromarket that are not only exceptional but insanely relevant Connect across the five most important touchpoints Co create with your customers And more It s time to reinvent the ways you engage with your customers Because when you learn to provide for them exactly what they want they not only bring along their wallets but those belong to their friends as well

Reclaiming Your Community Majora Carter, 2006-10-19 Majora Carter shows how brain drain cripples low status communities and maps out a development strategy focused on talent retention to help them break out of economic stagnation My musical In the Heights explores issues of community gentrification identity and home and the question Are happy endings only ones that involve getting out of your neighborhood to achieve your dreams In her refreshing new book Majora Carter writes about these issues with great insight and clarity asking us to re examine our notions of what community development is and how we invest in the futures of our hometowns This is an exciting conversation worth joining Lin Manuel Miranda How can we solve the problem of persistent poverty in low status communities Majora Carter argues that these areas need a talent retention strategy just like the ones companies have Retaining homegrown talent is a critical part of creating a strong local economy that can resist gentrification But too many people born in low status communities measure their success by how far away from them they can get Carter who could have been one of them returned to the South Bronx and devised a development strategy rooted in the conviction that these communities have the resources within themselves to succeed She advocates measures such as Building mixed income instead of exclusively low income housing to create a diverse and robust economic ecosystem Showing homeowners how to maximize the long term value of their property so they won t succumb to quick cash offers from speculators Keeping people and dollars in the community by developing vibrant third spaces restaurants bookstores and places like Carter s own Boogie Down Grind Cafe This is a profoundly personal book Carter writes about her brother s murder how turning a local dumping ground into an award winning park opened her eyes to the hidden potential in her community her struggles as a woman of
