Dartmoor:

The Discovery of Dartmoor Patricia Carolyn Milton, 2006 Early visitors to Dartmoor that great granite mass dominating the centre of Devonshire usually complained about its climate agreeing that this one thing is to be observed that all the yere through out commonly it rayneth or it is fowle wether in that more or desert Around the skirts of the moor as a discomforted 18th century traveller found the terrain was difficult the soil exceedingly swampy and moist and covered with bogmoss through which his horses legs penetrated knee deep at every step Faring no better the high moor was judged as dreary in the extreme of unprepossessing aspect and presenting nothing of interest William Gilpin arbiter of the picturesque hurried away declaring that Brentor was so immersed in clouds he could not even distinguish its shape Town dwellers despised the moorlanders said to be born Clowns their Carriage being very rustic and ungainly and their speech so coarse corrupt and uncouth as to be scarcely intelligible to strangers Yet somehow and at some time perceptions of the region and its people changed The climate became healthy and bracing the terrain wild and wondrous Dartmorian voices sounded liquid like the rapid purling of the little streams and the vibrant quality of their lives became the envy of outsiders Landscape artists discovered that the vagrant mists would eventually dissolve to reveal a wilderness of haunting beauty surmounting gentle wooded valleys Within a broad social and cultural context writers and artists have contributed to this transformation of Dartmoor and its dwellers in various ways The area retains its rugged natural beauty and surrounded by urban and coastal development remains a focus for the outdoor movement of the 20th and 21st centuries This book is a major addition to the literature of Dartmoor

Dartmoor Illustrated T A. Falcon, 1900      Walks on Dartmoor: Paths and Trackways Michael Caton, 2018-02-20

Twenty eight walks varying in length from 2 to 7 1 2 miles Photographs illustrate many of the features to be seen on the walks Using over sixty years of knowledge of Dartmoor Michael Caton leads you on a series of 28 walks based on paths and trackways over the moor Some of these walks are based on those led by the author for the Dartmoor Preservation Association Many of the walks have not been described in previous guidebooks or are not shown on the OS 1 25 000 map The walks are for those who wish to venture well into the open moor without having to negotiate the rough Dartmoor terrain A section has been included on the origin and history of the tracks including special comment on the route of the well known Abbot s Way There is also a section describing briefly what to see on the walks including prehistoric monuments medieval and later remains such as mining and granite crosses as well as flora and fauna The walks have been arranged in order around the southern and then the northern moor Each walk starts at a suitable parking place The routes are described in detail with appropriate grid references and brief information on the scenery and features to be seen The start of all the walks is shown on an overview map of Dartmoor About half of the routes are circular whereas others are more suited to a linear course The walk descriptions are accompanied by maps in which the route has been sketched out on the appropriate section of the 1 25 000 OS map A separate section gives advice to walkers and explains how to use this guide It also draws attention to safety issues of walking on Dartmoor including the dangers of military firing and adverse weather conditions
