Magazines Hindi:

The Indian Magazine, 1886 The Form of Ideology and the Ideology of Form Francesca Orsini, Neelam Srivastava, Laetitia Zecchini, 2022-02-23 This timely volume focuses on the period of decolonization and the Cold War as the backdrop to the emergence of new and diverse literary aesthetics that accompanied anti-imperialist commitments and Afro-Asian solidarity. Competing internationalist frameworks produced a flurry of writings that made Asian, African, and other world literatures visible to each other for the first time. The book's essays examine a host of print culture formats: magazines, newspapers, manifestos, conference proceedings, ephemera, etc., and modes of cultural mediation and transnational exchange that enabled the construction of a variously inflected Third World culture which played a determining role throughout the Cold War. The essays in this collection focus on locations as diverse as Morocco, Tunisia, South Asia, China, Spain, and Italy, and on texts in Arabic, English, French, Hindi, Italian, and Spanish. In doing so, they highlight the combination of local debates and struggles and internationalist networks and aspirations that found expression in essays, novels, travelogues, translations, reviews, reportages, and other literary forms. With its comparative study of print cultures with a focus on decolonization and the Cold War, the volume makes a major contribution both to studies of postcolonial literary and print cultures and to cultural Cold War studies in multilingual and non-Western contexts and will be of interest to historians and literary scholars alike.

The Other Country Mrinal Pande, 2011-01-01 The Other Country brings together a wide-ranging selection of essays by Mrinal Pande, one of India's most respected journalists. Through chronicle, anecdote, and hard-hitting reportage, Mrinal traces the many ever-widening fault lines between Bharat and shining India: the small town and the metropolis; the Great Language Divide between Hindi and English; traces its origin, the role globalization has had in its spread, and the effect of this divide on contemporary literature and media. She vividly describes the anti-outsider movement in Mumbai and analyses the role that inequitable development and the lack of opportunities in villages and small towns has played in it. Mrinal tells the story of Prabha Devi of Tehri, Uttarakhand, who picked up scissors and comb to become village barber in the face of opposition and thus came to represent the enormous change in attitudes and stances that are now sweeping Indian society everywhere. And through a hilarious profile of the Mineral Water Baba of Faridabad, who can heal any ailment with a sealed bottle of mineral water, she analyses one of the big issues facing India's villages and metropolises: its water management systems.
