hailed as Spain's greatest matador by the New York Times after a fatal goring in 1947. The bullfight was replete with promoters, agents, journalists, and of course, hugely paid bullfighters who were exploited to promote wine, cigarettes, and other products. Shubert analyzes the business of the sport and explores the bullfighters' world, their social and geographic origins, careers, and social status. Here also are surprising revelations about the sport, such as the presence of women bullfighters and the larger gender issues that this provoked. From the political use of bullfighting in royal and imperial pageants to the nationalistic, great patriotic bullfights of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, this is both a fascinating portrait of bullfighting and a vivid recreation of two centuries of Spanish history. Based on extensive research and engagingly written, Death and Money in the Afternoon vividly examines the evolution of Spanish culture and society through the prism of one of the West's first and perhaps its most spectacular spectator sports. This is the Bullfight John Leibold, 1971 Fortune, 1930 Yankees in the Afternoon Lyn A. Sherwood, 2001-01-01. Presents a summary and critique of the lives and careers of the greatest American matadors, women bullfighters, and novilleros. The Ritual Bullfight ... C. W. Bishop, 1927 The National Humane Review, 1930 Matadors Eamonn O'Neill, 1998. An examination of the world of the Matador. Journeying across Spain, the author interviews Matadors from the top and bottom of the profession, looks at the cut-throat world of the bull breeders, and witnesses the Pamplona Festival where both animals and men have been killed in recent years.
