My husband is a technology lover, he already has a vr headset, computers, drones and smart watch. What sort of unique gift could I get him that he doesn't already own?

It sounds like your husband is an avid technology lover, and finding a unique gift for him may be a challenge. Since he already has many of the most popular technology-related gifts, such as a VR headset, computers, drones, and a smartwatch, you may need to think outside the box to find something he doesn't already own. Some ideas for unique gifts for someone who loves technology might include:

- A subscription to a technology-focused magazine or newsletter, to keep him up-to-date on the latest developments in the field.

- A set of tools or accessories for his existing technology, such as a new case for his smartwatch or a lens kit for his drone.

- A DIY technology kit, such as a soldering iron, breadboard, and electronic components, to help him create his own gadgets and devices.

- A book or video course on a technology-related topic he is interested in, such as programming, 3D printing, or cybersecurity.

- A gift card to a technology retailer such as Best Buy or Amazon, so he
