Listening to the Music of Mozart Emilia Kabakov, 2001. The exhibition catalogue. Gina Osterloh. Mirror, Shadow, Shape will accompany an exhibition of the same name at the Columbus Museum of Art in Columbus, Ohio. This catalogue will be the first full monograph and survey of artist Gina Osterloh's work. Osterloh, a Filipino American artist, uses photography to mine her own history to pose questions about identity that are both intellectually and aesthetically compelling to wider audiences. Both the exhibition and its catalogue focus on the cogent development of ideas set forth by Osterloh in photographic series that span a period of fifteen years, 2005-2020. Osterloh's practice is unique for how it has seamlessly blended photography, film, performance, and drawing, creating a sustained engagement with a rigorous set of questions across radically different manifestations. The series Osterloh has made throughout her career to date have unfolded like a series of propositions. Her early work with photographic tableaux quite literally set the stage for what would become a fixation with abstraction, figures flattened into silhouettes whose forms are covered by the same patterned backdrops into which they are set. Bodies are emptied of viscera and filled with paper, and heads are turned down and away from the camera, becoming faceless portraits. While these works challenge photographic conventions, however, they also engage self-reflexively with the medium's history. The catalogue will be richly illustrated with full-color plates and include a foreword by Tyler Cann, Director of Exhibitions and Pizzuti Family Curator of Contemporary Art of the Columbus Museum of Art, an introductory essay by Anna Lee, the exhibition curator, an academic essay by art historian Ellen Tani, an artist conversation, interview between Osterloh and artist Sheilah ReStack, and chronology with key works, concepts, and events in Osterloh's career.
