Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps Rebecca Noone, 2024-07-12 Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps explores the mundane act of navigating cities in the age of digital mapping infrastructures Noone follows the frictions routing through Google Maps categorising and classifying of spatial information Complicating the assumption that digital maps distort a sense of direction Noone argues that Google Maps location awareness does more than just organise and orient a representation of space it also organises and orients imaginaries of publicness selfsufficiency legibility and error At the same time Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps helps to animate the ordinary ways people are challenging and refusing Google Maps vision of the world Drawing on an arts based field study spanning the streets of London New York London Toronto and Amsterdam Noone s encounters of asking for directions open up lines of inquiry and spatial scores that cut through Google s universal mapping project Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps will be essential reading for information studies and media studies scholars and students with an interest in embodied information practices critical information studies and critical data studies The book will also appeal to an urban studies audience engaged in work on the digital city and the datafication of urban environments

Augmented Images Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2022-09-07 Common boundaries between the physical reality and rising digital media technologies are fading The age of hyper reality becomes an age of hyper aesthetics Immersive media and image technologies like augmented reality enable a completely novel form of interaction and corporeal relation to and with the virtual image structures and the different screen technologies Augmented Images contributes to the wide range of the hyper aesthetic image discourse to connect the concept of dynamic augmented images with the approaches in modern media theory philosophy perceptual theory aesthetics computer graphics and art theory as well as the complex range of image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of images and technological evolution in the context of augmented reality within the perspective of an autonomous image science
