OBJECTIVE
This section should present a quick summary of your experience, training, and highlight relevant skills for the position you're seeking. Many hiring managers and recruiters only spend a few seconds to review your CV the first time. Their primary goal at this point is to determine whether your application should be considered further. Think of this objective section as a pitch for a short, concise paragraph that leads them to a coffee and face-to-face meeting.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Added your professional skills under the most recent and best highlight your skills
- Added educational courses that were job-relevant to your position and clearly get your qualifications
- Describe the duties, job title, and names of clients and previous employers

Medical Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2010-2012

- Clearly state the job description
- Describe your professional skills and how they relate to the job and the other candidates based on matching skills and experience
- Highlighting relevant qualifications is a must for every medical professional's resume and should include what sets you apart from others, such as your interests

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree | University of San Francisco School of Nursing | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2010
Pre-nursing Certificate | Technical College | San Francisco, CA | 2006 - 2008
Bachelor's Degree of Science | University of California, Berkeley | San Francisco, CA | 2004 - 2006

A clear education section where you lay out the relevant training and skills you have for the job

A strong objective section that lays out who you are and why you are perfect for the job

A work experience section in chronological order from the most recent on top to the least recent at the bottom
