Phonics Practice Review Setup:

A Scoping Study Into Perceptions of Phonological Pedagogy in Rural Ghana Christopher John Counihan,2010-01-27
Ghana's education system is in a state of transition Since the introduction of the Free and Compulsory Universal Basic Education FCUBE initiative in 1995 the country has struggled to meet with the demands of providing accessible schooling for children at any level Moreover with the underdevelopment of early years and primary provision more children face slipping through the net The battle to get children into schools and keep them there is proving to be problematic across the country As a result children are losing out on vital core learning experiences particularly literacy English is the medium of instruction in Ghana and is taught in schools from the primary level However with a blend of English and mother tongue instruction children are finding it significantly harder to grasp the basic skills As a result support from NGOs and teaching professionals have sought to find practical solutions through vis vis and reciprocal partnerships
