Textile Conservators Conservation And Museology:

Textile Conservation Frances Lennard, Patricia Ewer, 2010 Includes case studies from the UK USA and mainland Europe and Asia

Textile Conservator's Manual Sheila Landi, 2012-10-12 This second edition of Textile Conservator's Manual now revised and available in paperback provides an in depth review of the current practice ethics and materials used in textile conservation Concentrating on decorative art objects from the major cultures the book gives practical instruction and a wide variety of case histories While the format has been simplified the text has been expanded and updated to include changes brought about by recent developments in the conservation of material This new information will increase the reader's ability to interpret signs of ageing and past activity on the object New case histories in Part Two represent major investigations into the technical history A basis is provided from which to develop practical skills taking into account the needs of the object its essential characteristics of appearance and above all its structure The book covers a wide range of decorative objects from a fragment of linen 4000 years old to a theatrical backcloth of the twentieth century This book is practical and thought provoking not only about what is being done and how but also why

The Textile Conservator's Manual Sheila Landi, 1985-01-01

Chemical Principles of Textile Conservation Agnes Timar-Balazsy, Dinah Eastop, 2012-09-10 Chemical Principles of Textile Conservation provides must have knowledge for conservators who do not always have a scientific background This vital book brings together from many sources the material science necessary to understand the properties deterioration and investigation of textile artefacts It also aids understanding of the chemical processes during various treatments such as cleaning humidification drying disinfestation disinfection and the use of adhesives and consolidants in conservation of historical textiles Textile conservators will now have ready access to the necessary knowledge to understand the chemistry of the objects they are asked to treat and to make informed decisions about how to preserve textiles The combination of a chemist and a conservator provides the perfect authorial team It ensures a unique dual function of the text which provides textile conservators with vital chemical knowledge and gives scientists an understanding of textile conservation necessary to direct their research The many practical examples and case studies illustrate the utility of the relatively large chemical introduction and the essential chemical information which is included The case studies many illustrated in colour range from the treatment of the Ghandis clothes high altitude flying suits and a Mary Quant raincoat to the Hungarian Coronation Mantle

The Routledge Companion to Museum Ethics Janet Marstine, 2012-05-23 Routledge Companion to Museum Ethics is a theoretically informed reconceptualization of museum ethics discourse as a dynamic social practice central to the project of creating change in the museum Through twenty seven chapters by an international and interdisciplinary group of academics and practitioners it explores contemporary museum ethics as an opportunity for growth rather than a burden of compliance The volume represents diverse strands in museum activity from exhibitions to marketing as ethics is embedded in all areas of the museum sector What the contributions share is an understanding of the contingent nature of museum ethics in the twenty first century its relations with complex economic social political and technological forces and its fluid ever shifting sensibility The volume examines contemporary museum ethics through the prism of those disciplines and methods that have shaped it most It argues for a museum ethics discourse defined by social responsibility radical transparency and shared guardianship of heritage And it demonstrates the moral agency of museums the concept that museum ethics is more than the personal and professional ethics of individuals and concerns the capacity of institutions to generate self reflective and activist practice X-radiography of Textiles, Dress and Related Objects Sonia A.

O'Connor, Mary M. Brooks, 2007 X radiography of textile objects reveals hidden features as well as unexpected components and materials This book looks at the techniques used in X raying textiles showing how digitisation and digital image manipulation can yield maximum information about the subject Textiles Revealed Mary M.
