

The main workspace is divided into two primary sections. The upper section is a piano roll, where a purple track is selected. It displays a melodic line with notes and rests across a time axis. The lower section is a mixer, showing multiple tracks with various colored faders and knobs. The interface is dark-themed with a grid background.

This section contains the mixer and master output area. It features a series of vertical faders for each track, with a master fader on the right. Below the faders is a master section with a large green level meter and various control knobs. The bottom of the interface shows a series of small, glowing yellow indicators, possibly representing a MIDI piano roll or a similar visualization.
