Flight Into Fear:

Flight Into Fear Devi Sharan, Srinjoy Chowdhury, 2000 The Captain's account brings to vivid life the horror of seven days inside the hijacked IC 814 on its way from Kathmandu to Delhi Nearly 188 passengers and crew were pushed beyond the limits of normal human endurance and forced to confront situations they had never imagined bloodshed starvation and the crippling uncertainty of living under the constant threat of death

Flight Into Fear Duncan Kyle, 1979 On Disgust Aurel Kolnai, 2003 Kolnai made a breakthrough in the phenomenology of aversion when he showed the double intentionality of emotions like fear focusing on both the object of fear and the subject's concern for his own well-being this being one of the ways in which fear differs from disgust In a surprising yet persuasive move Kolnai argues that disgust is never related to inorganic or non-biological matter and that its arousal by moral objects has an underlying similarity with its arousal by organic material a particular combination of life and death Kolnai gives an analytic list of various kinds of disgusting objects which should not be read just before lunch and shows how disgust relates to the five senses
