

Women's History Month Reading Comprehension

Women's History Month

Women's History Month is in March. It started as Women's History Week. Women's History Week started in California in 1981. People wanted to thank women for the good they do. They wanted to make sure women were celebrated. Soon, more people joined in. It was celebrated across the country. It became Women's History Month in 1987.

We celebrate by learning about women heroes. You can learn more about important women in history! Some worked in science. Some made art. Some played sports. Some helped women get the right to vote.

We celebrate Women's History Month to remember brave women and their stories.
