Gary takes us behind the scenes and introduces us to a wacky group of characters who somehow managed to get newscasts on the air every night. He also focuses in on the inspiring stories of regular folks who have stood up to the unexpected challenges that came their way. Gary explains how legendary baseball manager Casey Stengel offered him a chance to join the New York Mets. He reveals why he is grateful to the Beatles for helping him get into Northwestern. And for the first time ever he explains why Channel 8 workers pulled the pants off of a producer and ran them up the flagpole in front of the station. He pays tribute to his boss Virgil Dominic who assembled award-winning news departments in Atlanta and Cleveland. He spells out how TV news has changed through the years.
