We Now Disrupt This Broadcast Amanda D. Lotz, 2018-04-13 The collision of new technologies changing business strategies and innovative storytelling that produced a new golden age of TV Cable television channels were once the backwater of American television programming recent and not so recent movies and reruns of network shows Then came La Femme Nikita OZ The Sopranos Mad Men Game of Thrones and The Walking Dead And then just as prestige cable became a category came House of Cards and Netflix Hulu Amazon Video and other Internet distributors of television content What happened In We Now Disrupt This Broadcast Amanda Lotz chronicles the collision of new technologies changing business strategies and innovative storytelling that produced an era termed peak TV Lotz explains that changes in the business of television expanded the creative possibilities of television She describes the costly infrastructure rebuilding undertaken by cable service providers in the late 1990s and the struggles of cable channels to produce and pay for original scripted programming in order to stand out from the competition These new programs defied television conventions and made viewers adjust their expectations of what television could be Le Femme Nikita offered cable s first antihero Mad Men cost more than advertisers paid The Walking Dead became the first mass cable hit and Game of Thrones was the first global television blockbuster Internet streaming didn t kill cable Lotz tells us Rather it revolutionized how we watch television Cable and network television quickly established their own streaming portals Meanwhile cable service providers had quietly transformed themselves into Internet providers able to profit from both prestige cable and streaming services Far from being dead television continues to transform

Outsmarting Cancer Adam Barsouk, 2026-02-24 A comprehensive guide to understanding and preventing cancer by addressing its root causes Outsmarting Cancer reframes one of the most pressing medical challenges of our time how to prevent cancer In this timely and accessible book physician and medical researcher Adam Barsouk MD presents a sweeping examination of cancer s true origins biological environmental dietary infectious industrial occupational and behavioral and makes a compelling case for why cancer prevention must become a central priority in public and personal health With personal stories from his clinical practice and the latest research Dr Barsouk explains why more people are getting diagnosed with cancer and at younger ages than ever before This book explores a wide range of overlooked and misunderstood risk factors as well as how inequities in diagnosis treatment and prevention disproportionately impact underserved populations Unlike typical cancer books that focus narrowly on diet or organ specific disease Outsmarting Cancer takes a comprehensive systems level view urging readers to look beyond the symptoms and target the root causes Dr Barsouk explores the role of genetic predisposition to cancer alongside environmental lifestyle and public policy influences that may contribute to developing the disease With rigorous scientific insight he offers real world evidence based strategies to reduce cancer risk in practical meaningful ways Honest urgent and empowering Outsmarting Cancer challenges readers to rethink how we talk about cancer and how we can reduce its burden before it begins

Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2007 Streaming Media and Cultural Memory in a Postdigital Society Renira Rampazzo Gambarato, Johannes Heuman, 2024-12-31 This book offers a relevant contribution to the studies of streaming media and transmediality with an original approach of cultural sustainability perfectly intertwined with cultural memory beyond borders By critically reflecting on popular streaming media series the book identifies their impact on the global circulation of cultural memory their learning potential for educational purposes and the societal challenges and opportunities that emerge from the ubiquitous streaming media penetration and potential for participatory practices It also investigates how series available worldwide on commercial platforms such as Netflix and Max contribute to the global circulation of cultural memories in addition to illuminating the ethical unsustainable and educational concerns involved in the fictionalization of the past Drawing on the authors expertise in media studies and history this transdisciplinary book will interest scholars in the fields of media studies cultural studies memory studies history transmedia studies education postdigital studies television studies social communication sociology and philosophy Guide to the

Digital Platforms and the Global South Philippe Bouquillion, Christine Ithurbide, Tristan Mattelart, 2023-12-01 This book addresses the issues raised by digital platforms in the Global South with an emphasis on the cultural stakes involved It brings together an interdisciplinary team of researchers including political economists socio economists geographers media sociologists or anthropologists who each explore these issues through an insightful case study at a local national regional or international scale While studying the strategies of some of the main US based Big Tech platforms or video streaming platforms towards the Global South the chapters also consider the often neglected active role local or regional actors play in the expansion of those Western digital players and highlight the existence of a constellation of local or regional platforms that have emerged in Africa Asia Latin America or the Middle East In addition to analysing the complex relationships of competition collaboration or dependence between these diverse actors this volume examines the ways in which the rise of these digital platforms has generated new forms of cultural entrepreneurship and participated in the reconfiguring of the conditions in which cultural contents are produced and circulated in the Global South This volume will appeal to readers interested in the transnationalisation of cultural industries or in the social political economic cultural and geopolitical dimensions of digital transformations and will be an important resource for students teachers and researchers in media communication cultural studies international relations and area studies programmes The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
