The Netflix Effect Kevin McDonald, Daniel Smith-Rowsey, 2018-02-22 Netflix is the definitive media company of the 21st century. It was among the first to parlay new Internet technologies into a successful business model and in the process it changed how consumers access film and television. It is now one of the leading providers of digitally delivered media content and is continually expanding access across a host of platforms and mobile devices. Despite its transformative role, however, Netflix has drawn very little critical attention far less than competitors such as YouTube, Apple, Amazon, Comcast, and HBO. This collection addresses this gap as the essays are designed to critically explore the breadth and diversity of Netflix's effect from a variety of different scholarly perspectives, a necessary approach considering the hybrid nature of Netflix, its inextricable links to new models of media production, distribution, viewer engagement, and consumer behavior, its relationship to existing media conglomerates and consumer electronics, its capabilities as a web-based service provider and data network, and its reliance on a broader technological infrastructure.

Reflections on Feminist Communication and Media

Scholarship Stine Eckert, Ingrid Bachmann, 2021-07-29 This collection brings together ten of the most distinguished feminist scholars whose work has been celebrated for its excellence in helping to lay the foundation of feminist communication and media research. This edited volume features contributions by the first ten renowned communication and media scholars that have received the Teresa Award for the Advancement of Feminist Scholarship from the Feminist Scholarship Division (FSD) of the International Communication Association (ICA): Patrice M. Buzzanell, Meenakshi Gigi Durham, Radha Sarma Hegde, Dafna Lemish, Radhika Parameswaran, Lana F. Rakow, Karen Ross, H. Leslie Steeves, Linda Steiner, and Angharad N. Valdivia. These distinguished scholars reflect on the contributions they have made to different subfields of media and communication scholarship and offer invaluable insight into their own paths as feminist scholars. They each reflect on matters of power, agency, privilege, ethics, intersectionality, resilience, and positionality, address their own shortcomings and struggles, and look ahead to potential future directions in the field. Last but not least, they come together to discuss the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on women, marginalized people, and vulnerable populations and to underline the crucial need for feminist communication and media scholarship to move beyond Eurocentrism toward an ethics of care and global feminist positionality. A comprehensive and inspiring resource for students and scholars of feminist media and communication studies.

Oppressive Inclusivity Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 They Sold You Equality They're Stealing Your Future Why does progress mean punishing men for existing? How did feminist policies become legalized theft of your labor, dignity and children? What if the real toxic trait isn't masculinity, it's the system rigged to break you? Reveal how gender equality is a Trojan horse for female supremacy. Crush the divorce industry's legalized robbery of men's wealth and freedom. Unmask the media's war on masculinity and why they need you weak. Discover why testosterone, not therapy, built every great civilization. Fight back against the state-sponsored theft they call alimony. Learn the communist playbook behind woke language policing. Escape the Beta Male trap, destroying an entire generation of men. Rebuild tribal brotherhoods to survive the coming gynocratic collapse. If you're ready to arm yourself with the truth and reclaim your birthright as a man, buy this book TODAY before they ban it.
