Representing Kink Sara K. Howe, Susan E. Cook, 2019-09-06 Representing Kink raises awareness about non normative texts and non normative erotic practices and desires It defines kink broadly encompassing a range of inappropriate texts and understanding it in frequent reference to non normative erotic fantasies and experiences Kink is treated as both a set of practices as well as a category of texts at the nexus of subject and form In addition to canonical texts that take up erotic and marginalized themes the collection also studies forms that are themselves fringe and feature kink taboo literature self published erotica SM narratives fan fiction role playing games and other disavowed texts The purpose of this study is to focus attention on the margins of an already marginalized subject in order to highlight the extent to which non normative textuality and eroticism both shape and are shaped by culture and context It sheds light on a category of subjects that is at once mainstream in the form of texts such as Fifty Shades of Grey and yet nevertheless repeatedly disparaged and undertheorized This book advocates for conversations about kinky texts that transcend dichotomous frameworks of good and bad and normal and deviant thinking instead in new theoretically rigorous and flexible directions Restart. Sport After the Covid-19

Time Out Jörg Krieger, April Henning, Lindsay Parks Pieper, 2022-11-11 In the edited collection Restart Sport After the Covid 19 Time Out practitioners and international scholars explore the restart of sport and fitness following the initial period of lockdowns during spring 2020 The chapters provide insight into the sport and fitness landscape following the initial wave of the pandemic The book focuses on challenges for sport providers consequences for sporting participants and opportunities for new ways of practicing sports It contributes contemporaneous data analyses and insights into the global sport landscape that has been impacted by the Covid 19 pandemic This book presents a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives in a total of nineteen individual chapters organized around five main themes The first four chapters deal with the restart of sporting events in four countries This section is followed by an assessment of the Olympic Movement's challenges after its postponement of the 2020 Summer Olympic Games to 2021 Chapters in the next theme provide analyses of how national governments handled restarting sport and fitness in different geographical locations Finally the last three chapters look at the role of the media during the restart phase both in reporting sport and with regards to innovations and the implementation of new technology in staging and broadcasting elite sport
