Building Paradise Harry Francis Mallgrave, 2021-09-29 A sweeping historical study Building Paradise seeks to construct a garden ethic for the design arts It is an ethic predicated on the idea that with our recent ecological and biological insights we can build more intelligently than the status quo of current design practices The paradisiacal instinct is the motivation behind every artistic impulse From its theological origins to the present the idea of paradise the garden as a place of peace beauty and happiness has acquired numerous meanings It was a motif expounded in the earliest cultures of Mesopotamia Egypt and the Indus Valley and it later became a dominant feature of Buddhist Judeo Christian and Islamic practices It informed Greco Roman mythologies and the design of a Japanese garden it was a motivation for the Renaissance humanists and was complicit in visions of a New Arcadia within the landscapes of the Americas This book underscoring how the built and urban environments shapes culture takes a biophilic approach and draws upon the major advances of the human sciences of the last few decades to argue on behalf of a design ethic centered squarely on human needs and aspirations Written for students and academics within architecture and all related fields this book focuses on the efforts to build paradise in a material way Why Old Places Matter Thompson M.
