The Red Scarf Yves Bonnefoy,2023-07-06 An intensely personal and profoundly moving review of Bonnefoy s childhood memories In December 2015 six months before his death at the age of 93 Yves Bonnefoy concluded what was to be his last major text in prose L charpe rouge translated here as The Red Scarf In this unique book described by the poet as an anamnesis a formal act of commemoration Bonnefoy undertakes at the end of his life a profoundly moving exegesis of some fragments written in 1964 These fragments lead him back to an unspoken lifelong anxiety My most troubling memory when I was between ten and twelve years old concerns my father and my anxiety about his silence Bonnefoy offers an anatomy of his father s silence and of the melancholy that seemed to take hold some years into his marriage to the poet s mother At the heart of this book is the ballad of Elie and H l ne the poet s parents It is the story of their lives together in the Auvergne and later in Tours seen through the eyes of their son the solitary boy s intense but inchoate experience reviewed through memories of the now elderly man What makes The Red Scarf indispensable is the intensely personal nature of the material casting its slant light a setting sun on all that has gone before
