- That you and the people you are applying for are U.S. citizens or nationals.
- The money you have gotten in the last 30 days such as check stubs, self-employment records, child support payment printouts, or award letters (such as disability benefits, Veterans benefits or financial aid).
- Assets you have, such as bank accounts, trust accounts, stocks, or bonds.
- Expenses you have, such as shelter, utilities, day care, and child support.

Information About Immigration Status

You can apply for part of your household even if some members do not have lawful immigrant status. For example, parents who do not have lawful immigrant status may apply for their children who are U.S. citizens or qualified lawful immigrants. You need to give proof of immigration status or U.S. citizenship for each person in your household for whom you apply.

Your household's alien status may be checked with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Any information we get from USCIS may affect your household's benefits. We will not contact the Citizenship and Immigration Service about the people you don't apply for. However, we may use their income and assets to see if the rest of the household can get help.
