Financial aid is money that helps pay for your education. It can come from the government, your school, or private organizations. Financial aid can be in the form of grants, scholarships, loans, or work-study. You may be eligible for financial aid if you are a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, have a high school diploma or GED, and are currently enrolled in college or university. You may also be eligible if you are a dependent of a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. To receive financial aid, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) each year. You can find more information about financial aid at www.fafsa.gov.
