Off Beat Pluralizing Rhythm draws attention to rhythm as a tool for analyzing various cultural objects In fields as diverse as music culture nature and economy rhythm can be seen as a phenomenon that both connects and divides It suggests a certain measure with which people practices and cultures may comply Yet for this very reason rhythm can also function as a field of exclusion contestation and debate In that respect rhythm possesses an underestimated meaning creating potential Whereas its connecting force is often accentuated in the aesthetic political and commercial usage of the term the divisive aspect of rhythm is at least as important This volume wants to rid rhythm of its harmless nearly esoteric reputation as a cosmic unifier by understanding it in the light of the contemporary medial turn In the present collection of essays we have encouraged approaches that combine political aesthetic musical and theoretical dimensions of rhythm Jan Hein Hoogstad is Assistant Professor in Comparative Literature and Cultural Analysis at the University of Amsterdam the Netherlands Birgitte Stougaard Pedersen is Associate Professor in the Section for Aesthetics and Culture Department of Aesthetics and Communication Aarhus University Denmark
