

Abraham Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln was the 16th president of the United States. He was born February 12, 1783, in Kentucky. He had little formal education and taught himself to read through borrowed books. He led the nation at a young age and was named to honor him by later generations.

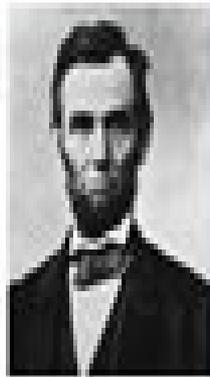

In his early years, Lincoln worked many odd jobs, like carpenter, surveyor, and postmaster. He studied law books and became a lawyer in 1810. He served a two-year term in Springfield, Illinois, and eventually earned the nickname "Honest Abe." It was in Springfield that he met Mary Todd, who he would later marry in 1842.

In 1846, he joined the U.S. House of Representatives but returned to his practice two years later in 1849.

He ran for the U.S. Senate twice but lost. However, he won the presidency in 1860.

The southern states were worried about Lincoln's views on slavery. They feared he would abolish slavery and decided to secede (or withdraw) from the country.

Only a month into Lincoln's presidency, the Civil War began on April 12, 1861. In 1862, Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation, an order to free the enslaved people. The Civil War ended officially on April 9, 1865. Unfortunately, he was assassinated while attending a play shortly after.
