Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent,2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island

Engaged Observers Brett Abbott,2010 A critical survey of nine documentary photographers who were at the cutting edge of this form of journalism during the second half of the 20th century Engaged Observers shows how since the sixties photographers such as Leonard Freed Susan Meiselas have challenged the conventional objectivity of the newsroom American Photo - ND,2007-01 Blueprint ,2005 Eye ,2004 Television Horace Newcomb,1987 The fourth edition of this acclaimed work features essays on such current topics as Mr T Dallas music videos soap operas and the ideology and politics of television The contributors span a wide range of disciplines and employ a variety of approaches including semiotics cultural studies and institutional analyses along with more traditional views of plots and themes to provide readers with a broad balanced perspective on popular television The PhotoHistorian ,1998 Exposure ,2002 The academy ,1882

Eve Arnold's People Anjelica Huston,Isabella Rossellini,2009 Eve Arnold a Magnum photographer since 1951 and revered by her peers and the latest creative generation in equal measure has photographed many of the great the famous and the powerful ranging from politicians and actors to musicians writers and artists This survey of an extraordinary career includes not only engaging and intriguing photographs of big stars many of whom became close friends but also of everyday people at work and at play around the world Interleaved throughout the book are five in depth Photo Stories showing the access and trust Eve gained when covering subjects such as the plight of migrant workers in Long Island on assignment with Malcolm X and her landmark In China project Brimming with images and contributions from friends colleagues and luminaries this book places Eve Arnold deservedly at the heart of the canon of photographic greats Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Tacoma and the Mason Branch Library ,1899 The Quill ,1984 Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal ,2004 First Color Inge Morath,Mary Panzer,2009 Following Inge Morath s death in 2002 nearly 10 000 hitherto unknown color originals were recovered from storage in Paris and New York This body of images together with Morath s known archive of color material reveals the development of a distinct sensibility Inge Morath was undoubtedly influenced by the legendary hostility of her colleague Henri Cartier Bresson to color photography Morath s own ambivalence is reflected in the contradiction between the sheer volume of color film that she exposed and its absence from her exhibited and published works Her color vision already strong in her photographs of gypsy encampments in Ireland in 1954 matured in the late 1950s during her documentation of the Middle East in 1956 and Romania where she worked in 1958 From the 60s on Morath employed color as a central element within her documentary narratives Filling in a significant lacuna in her previously published work First Color is an examination of Morath s first decade of work in color and is drawn largely from the trove of posthumously recovered material The Academy and Literature ,1882
